

Michele RICUPERO - CV

Assistant Professor of General and Applied Entomology, hired on PNRR Agritech Center, he works on the sustainable management of greenhouse pests through biocontrol and biopesticides including the ecotoxicology on natural enemies. Michele visited for research: INRAE (France), University of Minnesota (USA), University of Talca (Chile) and IVIA (Spain) and teaches Entomological biotechnologies in Agricultural Biotechnology master's degree course at UNICT. Member and Counselor of the Italian Entomological Society, he is associate Editor in Annals of Applied Biology and Guest editor for MDPI Agronomy & Frontiers. He was awarded as Top Reviewer in Multidisciplinary, Plant and Animal Science by Clarivate WoS.